Dover, Aug. 14.

YEsterday arrived here a ſmall Veſſel from Calais, the Maſter whereof reports, that there are ſeveral Dutch Men of War of good force cruiſing upon the Coaſt of Flanders; That in Calais Road are lately arrived 3 French Men of War which carry between 30 and 40 Guns apiece, belonging to the Royal Company of France, and now in that Kings ſervice; That one of the ſaid Dutch Men of War of ten Guns and 60 men, ſeparated from the reſt by ſtorm, and falling in with the French, ſeeing no means of eſcape, reſolutely engaged one of them, and killed 14 of his Men; but being overpowered by the ſtrength and number of his Enemy, and his men refuſing to continue the Fight any longer, rather than his ſhip ſhould remain to the French, he blew her up, and ſo periſhed with the reſt of his Company, except thirteen men only, which were ſaved by ſwimming.

Deale, Aug. 14. Laſt night arrived here four ſhips richly laden from the East Indies, three from the Coaſt of Bengola, and one from Bantam.

Vienna, Aug. 5. On Monday laſt arrived here an Envoy from the Duke of Modena, who ſince has had audience of the Emperor. This morning Count Leſley, accompanied with ſeveral Volunteers, parted poſt towards Denmark, where he commands in chief the Forces that the Emperor ſends to the aſſiſtance of that King. The Emperor is very much diſſatisfied with the late proceedings of the States of the Lower Saxony, who, notwithſtanding the reſolution of the Dyet at Ratisbonne, have in their laſt Aſſembly reſolved to ſend a Plenipotentiary to Nimeguen, to aſſiſt at the Treaty, and to take care of their particular Intereſts. General Cops having received 60000 Crowns, will ſuddenly begin his Journy for Hungary, whither the Grand Signior has ſent ſtrict Orders to his Baſſa's, not only not to give the Rebels the leaſt protection and refuge, but to be aiding on all occaſions to the Emperors Officers in the ſuppreſſing and ſubduing of them. Yeſterday the Duke of Wirtemberg had audience of the Emperor, being come hither to receive the Inveſtiture of the Fiefs poſſeſſed by the deceaſed Duke, his Brother. The Daniſh Envoy has lately preſented another Memorial to the Emperor, to pray him to recommend to his Commiſſioner at the Diet, the eſtabliſhing a new Toll at Gluckſtadt on the Elbe.

From the Elector of Brandenbourg's Camp before Stetin, Aug. 6. The 4th inſtant his Electoral Highneſs cauſed the Trenches to be opened, and the ſame day took the Fort de l'Eſtoile. Yeſterday our Frigats attacked the Swediſh Veſſels that are poſted in this River, and after a diſpute of two hours, forced them to retire from the Paliſſadoes: This morning the Suedes engaged our Frigats again, and after a ſharp Fight, ſet fire to one of them. General Major Swerin has begun to make uſe of his Batteries, and has ruined many houſes on that ſide of the Town which he is appointed to attack. The Suedes have made ſeveral Retrenchments in the Quarter called la Stadie, on the other ſide of the Oder. Yeſterday we took 46 priſoners, as they were returning from fetching Forage.

Baſle, Aug. 11. The 8th inſtant the Duke of Saxen-Eyſenach, being pretty well recovered of his late indiſpoſition, returned to his Camp, and cauſed a review to be taken of his Troops, which are ſtill poſted at Huningen. Yeſterday three Imperial Regiments, which are coming to join the Duke of Saxen Eyſenach, lodged at Newbourg, and will this day arrive in the upper Marquiſate of Durlach, one League from this place, on the other ſide of the Rhine. The ſaid Regiments are to have their quarters at Creutznach and Hatten, where a part of the Gariſons of Fribourg and Rhinfeld are to join them, and ſo make up a Flying Army to ſecure the Bridge the Allies have upon the Rhine, and oppoſe the incurſions of the Gariſon of Briſac. The Canton of Soleure hath lately writ a Letter to the Duke of Saxen-Eyſenach, to diſſuade him from undertaking the ſiege of Lauſcron, for that he ſhall be obliged to oppoſe him in his paſſage to it through his Territories.

Briſac, Aug. 13. On Tueſday laſt the Sieur de Monclar, after eight hours march, ſurprized near Plotzeim, one of the Enemies Quarters, took 400 priſoners, and carried away above 100 Horſe: at the ſame time he cauſed the Caſtle of Plotzeim, where there was a Gariſon of 60 men, to be ſummoned, and after a ſmall reſiſtance, the Officer and Men ſurrendred themſelves upon diſcretion. Yeſterday the Sieur de Monclar marched to Gutfenfeld, which is but a ſhort League from the Enemies Camp. Yeſterday 400 men in Gariſon here, were ſent to take poſſeſſion of the Caſtle of Hautemerſheim, which the Imperialiſts have abandoned; and the Boats which were formerly here, are bringing up the Rhine, in order to the making a Bridge at Nieubourg.

Cologne, Aug. 13. Two days ſince arrived here certain Commiſſioners from the Biſhop of Munſter and Duke of Newbourg, and others from the Electors of Treves and Mayence are daily expected. There is now no further diſcourſe of the Imperialiſts quitting Bonne, and the reſtoring our Elector to his Reſidence there. The Governor of Cleves has brought together a ſmall Body of an Army, to ſecure the Inhabitants of that Country againſt the frequent violences of parties from Maeſtricht, who have pillaged ſeveral Villages near Aix-la-Chapelle for failing to pay their quota of Contributions. The Baron of Landſee is ſuddenly expected here, on his return from Bremen, having in charge to negotiate ſeveral matters of importance with the Biſhop of Munſter, who is parted from Saſſenberg on his way to Verden. Next week the Duke of Newbourg will remove to Beusbourg, a Houſe of Pleaſure, within three hours of this place. Laſt week our Elector and Chapter ſent Deputies to the Intendant of Maeſtricht, to ſettle the Contributions to be paid by the Inhabitants of this Dioceſs. We have nothing new from Alſatia, our laſt Letters, which are of the 9th ſay, that the Army of the Circles continued in its ancient Poſt, the Duke of Saxen-Eyſenach having his head-quarters at Friedlingen,
